

WHERE THEY PLAY TOMORROW. Topeka at Hutchinson, Wichita at Leavenworth, Joplin at Webb City, Okiahoma City at Springfield.

The White Sox leave on the Santa Fe tonight for Hutchinson where they will meet Jay Andrews' team for four games. These games will be exciting and full of interest as Jay has his team playing ball at the present time. Out of the last 14 games which the team has played, Jay's team has taken 12 games. The White Sox will have to go some to beat them.

Perhaps there is not a man in the Western Association that regrets the assault upon Umpire Guthrie last Friday more than Jack Holland himself. "I am very sorry that such an affair came up," said Holland yesterday, "and no one feels it any worse than I do. It was all done in a moment when my better impulses were pushed into the background. I regret it very much for the reflection that it casts upon Wichita. I have lost many friends, not only among the fans at Wichita but all over the circuit as well. One thing sure, I am through talking to the umpire and hereafter I am going to have rothing to do with them. I have learned my lesson from the affair."

Wire at the Novelty theatre. During the four days, as an additional attraction, patrons will also be given the score by innings of the games played in Leaven-will and Quigley's team.

Joplia News-Heraid: With no marks to show where he was struck by Manager Jack Holland of the Wichita team in last Thursday's game at Wichita, between the Jobbers and the Cooleycrows, Umpire Guthrie arrived in Joplin this morning where he is to bold the indicator for the next three days. "Holland was at the bat three days. "Holland was at the bat in the second inning," said Mr. Guthrie this morning. "When I called the third strike on him he turned to me and said, What's that?" "Take your Oh, My!

hopes this will wear off. No taken right-hander with a more attractive line of merchandise has broken into the league in the last two years.

"I believe this will be the last year for the Western Association," said President Dan Breese of the Wichita team in talking to a number of friends yesterday. "The league has not near the race this season that it had last season and several of the teams are losing money. The same conditions prevail in the Western League. Pueblo is down and out as far as this season is concerned and will hardly be able to bear the burden of another year. The long jump to Denver will not pay without having the Pueblo team to stand part of the expense and I think it very probable that the two towns will be dropped. I look for an eight club circuit to be formed with Des Molnes. Sloux City. Omaha and Lincoin of the present Western League and Topeka, Wichita, Joplin and Oklahoma City of our own league to compose the circuit. present Western League and Topeka, Wichita, Joplin and Oklahoma City of our own league to compose the circuit. There is still talk that Leavenworth is to purchase Biausser from Webb City and play on third base.

Webb City came second with 56% will be the locals with Richard Cooley at the heim were trailing along in third place with a percentage of 54%. Sporting Life: It has been some moons since Edgar Willett pitched a game for Detroit. He is being kept in reserve, however, for double-header time, A bad inning habit interfered with his effectiveness but Jennings hops this will wear off. Before a crowd of twenty-five hundred fans Wichita gave Topeka a drubbing by a score of 7 to 2 Tuesday. The trouble all came in the first in ning when Pitcher Wright, who started the rubber for the locals, was trounced for six hits and four runs, and Bunton was finally called in to Uncertain.

Mr. Speer, the gallant young southside artist of the Wichita slab, pitched for the visitors and did a good plece of work although he did not have to work very hard. Most any pitcher can win a game when he starts in four runs to the good. But at that Speer pitched a good game and had the locals swinging the bat in the place where the ball didn't come. When they did hit Speer the ball generally went right into somebody's waiting

the air.

It was ladies' day. Maybe Mr.

Anyhow the locals started at him right after the umpire said "Play ball."

Milan, who has been sold to Washington, cracked one of the early throws of Wright to center field for two bases.

Becker flew out on a long fly to Law-ler. Hetling walked. This put two men on bases and by the time that

Olson Thows as Well in One Position as Another,

All the scoring that the locals were able to do came in the sixth inning. Bunton was the starter of the business. He hit a long one over Bayless' head which entitled him to go to first. He was cut off at second, however, on Lawler's fielder's choice. Hurlburt gave Speer another fielder's choice which eliminated Lawler at second. Abbott singled and Davis hit to left field for a double, scoring Hurlburt and Abbott. This was one of the pretitiest hits on the home grounds this

Far as gravitation would permit and then came down fust inside of the fence, Milan had the ball sized up as being good for a home run and thought it would go over the fence.

In the ninth liming Speer took a little vacation long enough to hold the interest of the crowd to the final bitter end. After two men were out Olson secured his second hit and Tonneman hit another safe. Bunton walked but Lawler swung at a wide one and it was all off for that gams.

Mr. Wrong.

Mr. Wright Was Not Right.

Several interesting plays were pulled off. Perhaps the best one was by Olson in the fifth inning when Weaver hit one almost out of his reach. Olson assumed a recumbent posture in the mud while fielding the ball, but managed to the way weaver out at first. and Bunton was finally called in to retire the Leaders so that Topeka could get a chance at the bat. Mr. Wright was evidently Mr. Wrong yesterday afternoon, as the Wichlia team did about all they pleased with him. As soon as Mr. Bunton stepped upon the rubber, things took a different turn, but it was too late, and although it is painful to relate. Topeka never had a look in and lost in one of the most decisive defeats on the home grounds this season.
